

Education Refresher

at American Job Center, Eastern CT (Danielson, New London, Norwich and Willimantic)

A program for job-seekers who need: a refresher in basic skills—reading, writing or math; English language skills; or a high school diploma to be more competitive in today's job market and/or meet entry requirements for training programs

EASTCONN Adult Programs in collaboration with New London and Norwich Adult Education Programs

Each participant will receive an individualized plan of study based on need, which can include:

- Short-term, on-site tutoring in targeted skills areas
- GED practice testing
- Referrals to appropriate free-of-charge high school completion classes or English-as-a-Second-Language classes at a local adult education program

Who would benefit:

- Adults lacking a high school diploma
- Adults with limited English language skills
- Job-seekers needing a refresher in reading, math, or writing

How to refer a client:

EASTCONN—Where Learning Comes to Life

Created in 1980 under Connecticut General Statute 10-66a, EASTCONN is a public, non-profit, regional educational service center. EASTCONN exists to provide high-quality, competitively priced educational and related services to 36 member Boards of Education and the 33 communities they serve in northeastern Connecticut. We are governed by a Board of Directors, who are members of locally elected Boards of Education. Our funding comes from the fees we charge for our services, supplemented by competitively awarded grants and contracts.

For more information about EASTCONN and its programs and services, please visit our Web site, www.eastconn.org, or call EASTCONN's Communications Department at 860-455-0707.

It is the policy of EASTCONN that no person shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be discriminated against under any program because of race, color, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, genetic information, gender identity or expression, veteran status, disability or any other classification protected by state or federal law.
